AMERICANS TRIUMPH
IN FENCING EVENT

Clinch Victory Against British in Twelfth Bout With Sabre.

C. R. MACPHERSON STARS

Lieut.-Col. Ridley Martin of English Team Almost Falls
From Exhaustion.

By SAMUEL J. BROOKMAN.

America defeated England in the international fencing tournament at the Hotel Astor last night after twelve bouts of the sabre competition, the third and last division of the series, had been completed. Winning seven of the twelve, the Americans increased their lead in the tournament to six bouts, and with only four bouts left to be decided victory became assured.

The event was opened on Friday night at the Washington Fencers Club, where the British had been outscored 11 bouts to 5 in fols. On Saturday the Englishmen had shown to advantage with the sabre, taking 8 out of 14 bouts contested, so that when the sabre division began last night the score stood 17 to 13 in America's favor.

With the victory decided the fencers went on to complete the program and in the four remaining bouts the British led in three. In one of them Col. A. Ridley-Martin, whose bouts had been the most strenuous of the evening, almost fell in a faint from sheer exhaustion when the bout stood 4 touches to 2 in favor of his opponent, Arthur S. C. A. Kershaw, who recovered quickly, but it was impossible for him to continue, and Lieut. T. H. Wand-Tendley substituted for him.

The Americans requested that the bout be fought again, instead of permitting Lyon to hold his advantage of 4 to 2, and then Lyon met defeat at the hands of the substitute by a score of 5 to 2. Lieut. Kershaw followed with a victory over Sherman Hall and Capt. Hammond won from Sergeant Dimond. The series ended when C. R. MacPherson earned his fourth straight victory.

Sabre Bouts Evenly Divided.

Thus the sixteen bouts in sabre were divided equally, but with the Americans having 14 touches against them and the British only 10, the honors for the evening really belonged to the victors. Since the series was decided, however, on the comparative aggregate total of bouts won, the final score was 25 to 21 in America's favor. With the victory went a large bronze trophy donated by Col. Robert M. Thompson.

A large fashionable gathering sat four deep around the fencing strip, which ran more than half the length of the ballroom. The balcony boxes too were well filled, with the olive drab of the army and the blue of the navy conspicuous here and there.

Undoubtedly the most spectacular of the three styles of fencing had been left for the New York division of the tournament. There, the bouts were decided in a matter of seconds, and the fencers were found an opening to send the blade through. It took longer to be touched once and the set-to to follow.

In fols there is more action. It is fast and skillful but rather subdued. There is none of that slashing and whacking. The fencers give every outward appearance of being more of a fight than fols. That explains why the attention of the gathering was held riveted throughout the programme by the men on the strip.

There was a distinct sensation when, in the first bout of the evening, Sherman Hall, Lieut. Kershaw, who was champion, and regarded as the most prominent all around fencer in America, was outmaneuvered by Lieut.-Col. Ridley-Martin of England. The latter won most of his points by parry and riposte and led by 5 touches to 2. England scored again in the second bout when C. A. Kershaw defeated Arthur S. C. A. Kershaw, 5 to 3, in a hotly contested affair, in which both fencers generally reached simultaneously. The touches had to be decided on a question of time, and the referee was called in to judge to determine which broadsword had landed first. This victory advanced the British team to within two bouts of a tie with the Americans in the series.

Americans Improve.

As the programme advanced, however, the Americans began to meet with better success. Sergeant John W. Dimond, of Fort Leavenworth, Kan., substituting for Arthur Lyon, surprised by defeating Lieut.-Col. Ridley-Martin, who had conquered Hall, and by a better touch in so doing. Then Chaucery R. MacPherson, national sabre champion, came through with a series of three brilliant victories, first by defeating Lieut. Kershaw, then by defeating Lieut. Kershaw, and finally by defeating Lieut. Kershaw in a hard fought clash, 5 to 4.

America came out on the other substitute besides Sergeant Dimond. He was Ensign E. G. Fullinwider of the U. S. Navy, who took the place of Dimond in the second round. Fullinwider, however, in losing a bout, gave way to Parker again in the next set to.

For the British team Lieut. C. A. Kershaw, who had shown to advantage in the fols and epee divisions last week, again proved to be the best. He won two of the three bouts in which he competed, losing only to MacPherson, who indicated clearly how he managed to win the national title last spring.

Those who competed in the sabre event for England were Capt. W. Hammond, Lieut. C. A. Kershaw, Lieut.-Col. A. Ridley-Martin and Col. Ronald B. Campbell. For America the swordsmen were Sherman Hall, Arthur S. Lyon, C. R. MacPherson, John W. Dimond, Chaucery R. MacPherson, and Ensign E. G. Fullinwider.

The summary of bouts up to the time the victory was clinched follows:

Lieut.-Col. Ridley-Martin, England, defeated Hall, 5 to 2.
Lieut. C. A. Kershaw, England, defeated Parker, 5 to 2.
Lieut. Kershaw, England, defeated Fullinwider, 5 to 2.
Lieut. Kershaw, England, defeated Campbell, 5 to 2.
Lieut. Kershaw, England, defeated Dimond, 5 to 2.
Lieut. Kershaw, England, defeated MacPherson, 5 to 2.
Lieut. Kershaw, England, defeated MacPherson, 5 to 2.
Lieut. Kershaw, England, defeated MacPherson, 5 to 2.

RAGGED START MARS
FEATURE AT BOWIE

Gives By Jimmy and Lunetta
Big Advantage—Modo
Wins by a Head.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 21.—Good behavior was penalized heavily at Bowie to-day when the three which had conducted themselves with decorum during the six minute delay at the start were sent off as a second division, while the two others which had been unruly received a wide advantage.

This happened in the Prietella purse, a one mile and seventy yard event for fillies and mares of all ages. Lunetta conducted herself contrastingly, while Jimmy behaved little better. Dredren, the heavily backed favorite, Lady Emiline and Lady Lovetop stood in at the tape, well trained.

When the barrier went up, by Jimmy showed Paul Connelly, closely followed by Lunetta and the outcome was decided. Dredren, Lady Emiline and Lady Lovetop straggled away in file, many lengths behind. By Jimmy showed the way throughout. Lunetta tired in the stretch run and Dredren, which ran as much as the best, overtook her in the final sixteenth pole, where he responded to the urging of his jockey by taking a head. Champion finished three lengths in advance of Tangerine, which had been the medium of smart support. He was compelled to run in heavy going though the early stages, and it evidently dulled whatever speed he might have brought to the barrier. The four others might as well have been in their stables for the early stages, and it evidently dulled whatever speed he might have brought to the barrier. Modo made his first appearance in Maryland in the Annapolis purse, a seven furlong condition event. There was a marked disposition to seek elsewhere for the winner, because there were many who were in doubt regarding his ability to run through the heavy going which was again in evidence as a result of another raining for about twelve hours after the racing of Saturday. To-day it was drying well through the middle, but the path along the rail proved trying and fatal for many.

Modo showed that he had no liking for it, but his class enabled him to the final sixteenth pole, where he responded to the urging of his jockey by taking a head. HOPPE HAS CLEAN
SLATE IN TOURNNEY

Defeats Cochran 400 to 329,
Making Five Straight Victories at Chicago.

STANDING OF PLAYERS.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Champion Willie Hoppe registered his fifth straight win in to-night's game of the 18:2 balkline championship when he defeated Welker Cochran, the Iowa record smasher, 400 to 329. Cochran battled every inch of the way with the champion.

In the third game the game looked like a walkaway for Hoppe, the score standing 208 to 6, but Cochran came back in the fourth and fifth innings with runs of 83 and 145, assuming the lead until the tenth frame, when the score stood 329 for Cochran, Hoppe 309.

Willie ran out his 81 points after Cochran had left them in perfect position. The game was replete with brilliant plays, Cochran excelling with several fine masses, while Willie resorted to several three cushion shots to bring the balls into position. His angle game earned several rounds of applause.

To-morrow the final game will be played between Jake Schaefer and Hoppe. Schaefer has won four and lost one. If he beats Hoppe it will be necessary for a playoff between Schaefer and the champion. Cochran finishes third in the tournament, with Roger Court, the French expert, fourth.

Schaefer has the high grand average of the tournament, with 59.3-26, while Hoppe, who is leading with five consecutive wins, only shows 57.9-13 for his grand average.

Edward Horomans of Belgium defeated George Sutton of Chicago 400 to 173 in six innings in a match this afternoon. Horomans had a high run of 163 and Sutton 46.

Horomans would have run out in his fifth inning, but he missed the last shot when the balls were in a straight line. He tried a bank shot and missed the red ball by a fraction of an inch. The result relegated Sutton to last place.

Jake Schaefer continued his winning streak by polishing off Ora Morningstar in the second match game 400 to 209. Jake was in great form and went out in six innings. Schaefer has played by far the most brilliant and consistent billiards of any of the seven contestants, not excepting Champion Willie Hoppe.

The scores:

SUTTON VS. HOROMANS.
Sutton—41, 22, 48, 25, 37, 21. Total, 173.
Horomans—122, 34, 20, 163, 1. Total, 400. Average, 66.4-4. High run, 163.

MORNINGSTAR VS. SCHAEFER.
Morningstar—2, 2, 7, 30, 119. Total, 300. Average, 50.
Schaefer—118, 135, 90, 50, 28. Total, 400. Average, 80-2.

Becker Leads Skaters.

W. Becker, with a handicap of twenty yards, last night won the two mile class A handicap race, the feature of the weekly race of the 13th Street Ice Palace. Joe Moore, international champion, who was scheduled to start, was unable to take part because of a suspension which was imposed by the association.
